COMMITTEE REPORT

Of the San Francisco Mechanics' Institute Industrial Exhibition, 1864.

CUTTING & Co. exhibit a very fine and varied assortment of case goods, consisting in part of Pickles, tastefully packed in various sized jars; Jams and Jellies, hermetically sealed; Pie and Table Fruits and Fresh Vegetables, preserved in cans; Tomato Catsup; Worcestershire Sauce; Capers; Brandy Peaches, etc.; all of California Manufacture. These goods are all of a very superior quality, and the style of their labeling and packing seems far ahead of imported articles. Of this most important branch of our domestic manufactures we learn that the articles on exhibition are fair samples of what this firm is capable of supplying to the trade in any quantity, and that they give employment to about sixty hands in their manufactory, which is one of the largest of its kind in the United States, occupying as it does, the extensive property and bulldings Nos. 21, 23, 25, 27, 29 and 31 Main Street. This branch of industry is of immediate importance to the agricultural interests of the State, since this firm alone annually consumes many tons of fruit and vegetables. In view of the merit of these articles, and the means that they are of retaining in the State so much money, which would otherwise go abroad, we recommend for Cutting & Co. the highest premium that it is in the power of the Society to bestow.

PREFACE.

The present volume is respectfully submitted to public consideration, with a belief that a careful examination of its contents will prove what it purports to be—a valuable book of reference of the principal towns east of the Cascade Mountains.

The issue of a Directory of Idaho and contiguous countries is not premature. The information contained in the book is of peculiar interest to the business portion of the community, because of the number and importance of the mineral regions comprised.

A map has been prefixed to the Directory, which will make it additionally interesting.

Thanks to public officers and others who have promptly and courteously given information for the book while it was in course of preparation, and especially to advertisers and subscribers, for the substantial evidences of their favor.

Respectfully, the

THE NORTH COUNTRY.

The Upper Country, popularly so called, embraces a very large area of territory lying between the parallels of 42° and 54° north latitude, and the meridians of 110° and 120° west longitude from Greenwich, or 33° and 43° west longitude from Washington. It comprises within its limits, Idaho Territory, part of Washington Territory, part of Montana Territory, that part of Oregon east of the meridian of 43°, and that part of British Columbia lying between the meridians of 37° and 41° west longitude. Those countries which come within the above limits will be described separately, as follows: Idaho Territory, British Columbia, Washington Territory, and the State of Oregon.

IDAHO TERRITORY.

According to Act of Congress, approved March 3d, 1863, the Territory of Idaho (Idaho signifying "Gem of the Mountains") was created from those portions of Washington, Dakota, and Nebraska Territories, lying between the 104th and 117th meridians of west longitude. Its present boundaries extend from the meridian of 117°, where it connects with the 49th parallel; thence along said parallel to the 116th meridian; thence running due south to the Bitter Root Mountains, following the course of the Rocky Mountains to the 110th meridian; thence due south on said meridian to the 42d parallel, and along said parallel to the 117th meridian; thence running due north to the mouth of the Owyhee River; thence following down the channel of the Snake River to a point opposite the mouth of the Clear Water River; thence following the 117th meridian to the 49th parallel.

Idaho, till within a few short years, was comparatively unknown. The Indians, who inhabited the country before it was settled by the white man, were hostile to those who attempted to explore and settle within its borders. Although it was traversed by hardy trappers, who penetrated the country in pursuit of their perilous calling, they added but little to the general stock of information which we possess. The country remained in this condition till 1852, when gold was discovered by a French Canadian on the banks of the Pen D'Oreille River.

An interval of eight years elapsed from the first discovery of gold till the finding of richer and more extensive diggings at Oro Fino, in the summer of 1860, by a party of eleven men, where twenty-five persons wintered without intercourse with the outside world. This discovery seemed to open the way to the quick development of Idaho, for soon afterward some miners went out from Oro Fino on a prospecting expedition, and found good mines at Elk City. From 1,500 to 2,000 persons started for the new gold region in the spring of 1861.

Oro Fino is in Shoshone County, and situated at the junction of Oro Fino and Rhodes' creeks. Oro Fino Creek has paid in places, for about twenty miles. There are rich placer mines on Rhodes' Creek and Canal Gulch. Pierce City is located at the mouth of Canal Gulch, and was settled in the spring of 1861. It is a short distance from Oro Fino. On the discovery of gold east of Snake River, a town called Lewiston was established at the confluence of the Snake and Clear Water rivers, then lying within the limits of the Nez Perces Reservation, and became immediately the depot for supplying the mineral regions east of it. An important treaty between the General Government and the Nez Perces Indians was concluded at the council ground near Fort Lapwai, June 9th, 1863. The negotiations were conducted by three Commissioners, Messrs. Hale, Hutchins, and Howe, Indian Agents of Washington Territory, on the part of the United States, and Lawyer, head chief, assisted by fifty subordinate chiefs, on the part of the Indians; it resulted in their relinquishing about 9,000 square miles of land; the balance, consisting of 1,000 square miles, was set apart for the tribe, each adult member of which being entitled to twenty acres of land and well stocked.

During the fall of 1861 very rich placer mines were found on the tributaries of Salmon River at Florence. The reports of the discovery created considerable excitement, and a large number of persons left the neighboring eamps, bound for Florence. The following year there was a rush from the Pacific States, and also from the East. During the same year a party went out from Florence, and discovered Warren's Diggings, which is considered a good mining camp.

The next and most important discovery of placer mines was made by a party of twelve men from Walla Walla. This party started on a prospecting expedition, and at first went on the south side of Snake River as far as Sinker Creek, a tributary of the former, which they then crossed and went up Boise River into the mountains by way of Moore's Creek. In the month of August they found gold on Grimes' Creek, two miles below where Centerville now stands. They continued prospecting toward the head of the creek, about six miles above Pioneer

City, where Mr. Grimes, one of the party, was killed by an Indian. After this sad occurrence, deeming it unsafe to proceed further, they concluded to return to Walla Walla, where they succeeded in raising a party of fifty-four men, who returned to the mining camp now known as Pioneer City, arriving there October 7th. Ten days after their arrival, thirty-four men went back for provisions, and the rest improved the time while they were gone in building a stockade, as a protection from the Indians. The thirty-four men, while on their way back to Walla Walla were passed by other parties following their trail into Boise Basin. It is supposed that two or three thousand men went into Boise Basin by the first of January, 1863. There was no mining of importance done till spring, an account of the snow, but principally prospecting. That year a large number of persons left the Pacific States, bound for the new El Dorado.

Boise Basin is the largest placer mining region yet discovered in Idaho Territory, and exceeds in extent and richness all other placer mining regions outside of California, on the Pacific Coast. There are many rich and valuable quartz lodes in the Basin, and since a few quartz mills have been in operation, a feeling of confidence in their richness and permanence have pervaded the public mind. Boise Basin is well timbered and watered, offering excellent facilities for the development of its mineral resources. The climate is mild, dry, and serene during the summer and fall; it is cold in the winter, but generally equable and healthy all the year round. The following towns have become important mining camps in Boise Basin: Hog'em, name since changed to Pioneer City; it was the first town settled in Boise Basin. The town of Centerville is favorably and centrally located on Grimes' Creek, lying between Placerville and Idaho. Placerville is a good mining camp; it is about five miles north-west of Centerville. Idaho City was formerly called Bannock City; it is in 43° 46' north latitude, and situated at the confluence of Elk and Moore's creeks; it is the county seat of Boise County, and the largest and most thriving town in Idaho Territory. The placer mines are rich and extensive, and numerous gold and silver-bearing quartz ledges are found within a short distance of town. Warm springs are found about two miles south-west of Idaho, and are much resorted to during the summer and fall.

Silver Hill District is situated in Boise County, on the divide between the waters of the Payette and Crooked River—the latter a tributary of the North Fork of the Boise River. The district is well timbered and watered—offering good facilities for milling and mining purposes. The town of Banner is thirty-five miles north-east of Placerville, and fortyfive miles via Idaho City. The placer and quartz mines of Owyhee County are situated in the south-western part of Idaho, and were discovered in the spring of 1863, by Mr. Jordan and a party who went out from Boise Basin on a prospecting expedition. Finding good placer mines on Jordan Creek, and very rich silver-bearing quartz lodes in the vicinity of Silver City, they commenced work on some of them in October of the same year.

The Snake Indians inhabiting the region of country lying north and south of Snake River, have often manifested a hostile disposition against the whites; and where they have had a chance to commit depredations, the settler and prospector have suffered either in the loss of life or property, and sometimes both. As in most all Indian countries, a state of peace is not likely to continue a long time, nor a feeling of personal security to prevail. About one year after the discovery of gold on Jordan Creek, the Indians commenced hostilities by killing two men and stealing stock. So soon as the fact was known, Mr. Jordan, accompanied by about twenty men, started in pursuit of the Indians, overtaking them on the head waters of the Owyhee River, nearly sixty miles south of Boonville. They were supposed to number three hundred strong. Jordan and his party attacked them from an eminence overlooking them; but being overpowered by superior numbers, they were compelled to seek safety by flight, leaving Jordan dead on the field. The Indians pursued them nearly eight miles. A party of one hundred strong went back to the place where Jordan was killed, and found his body horribly mutilated. The party, however, succeeded in overtaking the Indians, completely routing them, and killing about thirty or forty of their number. Since then rapid progress has been made in the development of the mineral resources of the country. Mills have been erected; the quartz has paid well; and a general feeling of confidence prevails among the miners.

The surface of Owyhee County is very uneven and mountainous. The climate is mild during the summer, but severe and subject to storms in the winter.

Ruby City is the county seat of Owyhee County, and situated on the south side of Jordan Creek. Silver City is on the same side of the creek, about three-fourths of a mile from Ruby City. Boonville was the first town settled in Owyhee County, and is located on the north side of Jordan Creek.

Alturas County lies east of Boise and Ada counties. Silver-bearing quartz ledges were discovered at Rocky Bar about the same time as in Owyhee County. Placer diggings have been found on Feather River, and lately very rich gold mines on the head waters of Middle Boise River, and especially on Yuba River and Grouse Creek, where good placer mines have been discovered, which are about fifteen miles in extent; and valuable quartz lodes have been found, which bid fair to support a considerable mining population. Alturas County is well timbered and watered for milling and mining purposes.

Rocky Bar was settled in 1863. It is situated at the confluence of Bear and Steel creeks, and is the county seat of Alturas County. Clifden is about one-half of a mile from Rocky Bar. Happy Camp is located on Feather River, and is sustained principally by placer mines; it is about three miles from Rocky Bar. Hot springs are found on Grouse Creek, about three miles from Yuba City, in Alturas County.

Volcano is the name of a new quartz district in Alturas County. It was discovered March 12th, 1864, by a party called the Pioneer Company, consisting of five men. Placer mines have been found on the south slope of Volcano Mountains, north of Snake River, and also in Cottonwood Canyon, which give employment to a few miners. There is plenty of water for milling and mining purposes in Volcano District; but not much timber in the immediate vicinity of the quartz ledges located in Spring Valley. The town of Volcano was laid out in October, 1864; it is situated at the south-west corner of Big Cammas Prairie, and five miles from the Emigrant Wagon Road.

Franklin is located in a mining and agricultural region, a short distance from Volcanoe. Warm springs are found a few miles from Volcano.

Boise County has been divided, and a new county formed, by Act of Legislature, called Ada County. Boise Valley is in Ada County. The soil is of course very various. Those portions not having facilities for irrigation are dry, but on the river bottoms it is excellent. The climate is mild during a part of the year, but somewhat cold in the winter.

Fort Boise is in Boise Valley, and was established the seventh of July, 1863, by P. Lugenbeel, Major of the Nineteenth U. S. A. Boise City is in 43° 34′ north latitude; it is situated in Boise Valley, on the north side of Boise River. It is centrally located, being easy of access by roads which branch from here to the placer and quartz mines in Boise, Owyhee, and Alturas counties. Boise City became the capital of Idaho Territory, by Act of Legislature, in 1864, and the County seat of Ada County during the same year. It has excellent facilities for trade.

The discoveries of placer and quartz mines which have been made in Idaho within the last five years, have developed it enough to prove its richness in minerals. A large area of territory, hitherto unexplored, is believed to be rich in auriferous deposits, and gold and silver-bearing quartz lodes, which will, at no distant period, support a large mining population.

The country lying between Umatilla City and Idaho contains mountains of some magnitude. The principal and most noticeable ranges are the Blue Mountains and the mountains of Boise County. It embraces some fertile tracts, that of Grande Ronde Valley containing an area of about four hundred square miles. The bottoms of Boise and Payette valleys are productive to some extent. The region lying between Grande Ronde and Payette valleys forms a rugged tract, and is generally destitute of timber.

Captain White also commanded the first steamboat on the Willamette River. The first steamboat on the Snake River, ascended Clearwater River, twenty-five miles from its mouth, in 1861. In consequence of shallowness of the water, the boats ascend to where Lewiston now stands. Snake River has been ascended about fifteen miles above Lewiston. VIEW OF MAIN STREET, WALLA WALLA.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

WALLA WALLA.

Walla Walla is favorably situated in a valley from which it derives its name. The first frame building was erected in the city in the fall of 1858; since then it has advanced rapidly in growth, population, and prosperity. Being located in an agricultural valley, it enjoys good facilities for trade. At present most of the travel and freight leaves this city for Fisherville and the Kootenai mines in British Columbia. There is also considerable travel and trade between Walla Walla and Boise Basin, and other parts of Idaho. Estimated population, 1,200; distance from Wallula, thirty miles.

WALLULA.

Wallula is located on the south side of Columbia River, and east of the mouth of the Walla Walla River. The freight for Walla Walla is landed here. Distance from Boise City, via Walla Walla, two hundred and ninety-five miles.

FORT WALLA WALLA.

WALLA WALLA VALLEY.

FORT WALLA WALLA was established on Mill Creek, Walla Walla Valley, September, 1856. On account of the hostility of the Indians towards the whites, they removed to A. J. Can's Addition to the city. In October, 1856, on the breaking up of Gov. I. I. Stephens' Council, held with the different tribes of this part of the upper country, consisting of Nez Perces, Walla Walla, Umatilla, Yakima, and Spokane Indians—between 1,700 and 2,000 in number. The day that he left for the Dalles, the Indians suddenly attacked him, and fought till night, when they were compelled to draw off. He, in the meantime, sent in an express to Col. Steptoe, apprising him of his situation, and asking assistance, which reached him about ten o'clock that night. Upon the Indians being aware of his moving, and that he had received assistance, they endeavored to destroy him before he could reach his cantonment, but were happily disappointed.

Next morning they resumed hostilities, fighting until about eleven o'clock that day, when the commander, getting a howitzer into position, caused them to retreat by throwing shot and shell among them. Col. Steptoe, with Gov. Stephens' party and his own force, erected a block house and stockaded it in; leaving one company to protect Government stores, he proceeded with the balance of his force, consisting of one company of cavalry and one of artillery, to escort Gov. Stevens as far as the Dalles.

On General Wright's arrival, in 1857, the fort was permanently located where it now stands—about a mile and a half west from the city. Walla Walla Valley was first opened to settlement in the fall of 1858, by order of General Wright, Commander of the Department of Oregon at that time.

STATE OF OREGON.

DALLES CITY.

Dalles City is pleasantly situated on the south side of the Columbia River, and is a place of much trade. The travel and freight for Idaho, Canyon City, and the Kootenai Mines, pass through the city, which renders it a place of considerable business. Its climate is subject to sudden changes. Its public school is one of the best in the State. Estimated population, 2,500.

Churches.

The Methodist Church is located on Washington Street, south of Fifth. It was built during the year 1862, by Rev. S. F. Devoe, who was pastor till July, 1863, when he was succeeded by Rev. B. C. Lippincott. The church had then a membership of twenty-two—now seventy-four; being an increase of fifty-two.

The Congregational Church is situated on Third, east of Washington. It was built in the fall of 1862. Had a membership then of seven; present number, thirty-five. Rev. Thomas Condon, Pastor.

Catholic Church is located on Third Street; F. A. Vermass, Roman Catholic Priest. There is a Roman Catholic School in the rear of the church.

Public School.

The Dalles Union School House is situated on Fifth Street; J. D. Robb, Principal.

ASSISTANT TEACHERS.

Misses Mary Hill, Julia Johnson, S. A. Wall, and M. E. Snyder. Number of scholars between two hundred and fifty and three hundred; average attendance about two hundred and twenty-five.

Newspapers.

The first newspaper published at the Dalles was called the Dalles Journal. It passed into the hands of W. H. Newell, in 1859, the present editor and proprietor. The name was changed to the Dalles Weekly in 1860. The first copy of the Daily Mountaineer was issued August 11th, 1862, by the proprietor of the Dalles Weekly.

UMATILLA CITY.

UMATILLA was settled in the spring of 1863. It is situated on the south side of the Columbia River, and bounded on the east by the river from which it derives its name. It was incorporated as a city during the fall of 1864, and became the county seat of Umatilla County the following year. It is one of the best landings on the river, being easy of access to Boise Basin, the quartz mines of Idaho, and the mining and agricultural regions on the south-east. It is unsurpassed as a shipping point, enjoying good facilities for communication with the interior all the year round. During the summer months, the city is exposed to violent winds, which prevail on the Columbia River at that season; the winters are, however, mild and pleasant. Estimated population, four hundred and fifty.

GRANDE RONDE VALLEY.

Grande Ronde Valley abounds in fine scenery. Its soil is excellent, well watered, and most of it very productive. It has an area of about four hundred square miles, the greater part of which is already settled. The climate is somewhat unhealthy, and liable to sudden changes.

LA GRANDE.

LA GRANDE, in Grande Ronde Valley, was settled in the fall of 1861, and the present town site was selected the following autumn. It is pleasantly situated on rising ground, which gently slopes toward the center of the valley. Tempestuous winds prevail in La Grande during a part of the year, and are specially disagreeable during the winter. Distance from Eagle Creek Mines, about fifty-six miles. Estimated population, four hundred and fifty.

UNION.

The town of Union was settled in the spring of 1864. It lies at the south end of Grande Ronde Valley, near the Spring Valley Pass, which connects Powder and Grande Ronde valleys. The town, being located in close proximity to rich and extensive placer mines, is thus afforded good facilities for trade. Estimated population, one hundred and fifty. Distance from Eagle Creek Mines, about forty miles.

Improvement.—A grist mill is in course of construction, forty feet square, by Reynolds & Baker, who intend finishing it by harvest time.

CELILO, WASCO COUNTY.

Celilo is a steamboat landing, and located on the south side of the Columbia River, about fifteen miles east of the Dalles, with which it is connected by a good railroad. The O. S. N. Co.'s railroad ware-house here deserves notice, on account of its length and ample room for storage. The office is so constructed that it is easily movable to any part of the interior of the building, by means of rollers which are affixed to the base. The length of this edifice is said to be nine hundred and fifteen feet. There are thirty entrances on each side of the building—making sixty in all. The floor is thirty feet wide, and the doors move on rollers—making this the longest and largest warehouse on the coast. The cars run along on the south side of the building, and the steamer loads and unloads her passengers and freight on the north side.

RESIDENTS OF CELILO.

Jones, G. W., miner.
Madison, Capt. A. L.
Mallory, R. H., dry goods.
Peabody, T. J., agent of the O. S.

Perkins, H. W., boarding house. Snooks, C. (Malory & Co.) saloon. Stone, A. H., purser, employed by the O. S. N. Co.

CANYON CITY.

The mines in the immediate vicinity of Canyon City were first discovered by a party of fourteen men from California. They started from Yreka with the intention of going to Salmon River; but in consequence of a disagreement regarding the route they were to go, five of the party left via Burnt River for Powder River, and nine concluded to prospect Pine Creek, and found good prospects on it about a mile and a half from Canyon City. On the following day, a satisfactory prospect was obtained in Rich Gulch, which induced the party to try Canyon Creek. Thus commenced the development of one of the richest mining regions in the upper country, and it has yielded satisfactorily ever since. The mines in this section average uncommonly well. Estimated population of Canyon City, 2,500.

John Day's City is situated on Canyon Creek, about one-fourth of a mile from John Day's River, and one and a half miles from Canyon City. Estimated population, two hundred and fifty.

New gold mines have been discovered on the Middle Fork of John Day's River, twenty-five miles north of Canyon City, and promise to equal, if not excel, Canyon Creek. A few miners have wintered there, and this region will be a fine field for the enterprising and industrious.

Rich copper mines have been discovered on a mountain near Dixie Creek, which have prospected as high as eighty per cent. Distance to the mines, about eighteen miles north-east of Canyon City.

AUBURN -- COUNTY SEAT BAKER COUNTY.

AUBURN was settled in the winter of 1862. It is located on Blue Gulch Creek, which empties into Powder River about two miles from town. The surrounding country is well timbered and watered. The climate is mild. The mines afford remunerative employment to a small number of miners. Estimated population in Auburn and vicinity, three hundred.

MORMON BASIN, BAKER COUNTY.

MORMON BASIN, is situated in a small, but rich, mining region. It is well timbered, but has not much water for mining purposes. Estimated population, three hundred. Distance from Rye Valley about eight miles. Persons going to Rye Valley go by way of Express Ranch, which is fifteen miles.

EAGLE CREEK, UNION COUNTY.

EAGLE CREEK MINING REGION.

THE Eagle Creek mining region is in Union County. It is divided into two districts, as follows: Koosta and Summit. Eagle Creek, by which this section is called and popularly known, is about forty miles from Union, and fifty-six miles from La Grande. Placer mines were first discovered on Pine Creek, nearly east of Eagle City, by a person of the name of Koosta.

EAGLE CITY and another mining camp which goes by the name of Shanghai, are situated in Koosta District. The mines are said to be somewhat extensive. This year will give opportunity to partially develop the district.

AUGUSTA is a small camp in Summit District. The country surrounding Eagle Creek is well timbered. The climate is mild during the spring, summer, and fall, but cold and equable in the winter.

The Petre Ditch, in Summit District, extends seven and a half miles, and will be, when completed to Summit Digging, ten and a half miles, thence to Eagle City, twelve miles further, or twenty-two and a half miles altogether.

NEW IMPROVED SCHOOL DESK.

Patented February 18, 1862, by J. S. Rankin.

Redwood, with Ink-Wells....$6 00 Spanish Cedar......... 8 50 Teacher's Desk, Spanish Cedar 25 00 School Settees, per foot....... 80

Single Desk and Chair, Iron Liquid Slating, per quart 2 50

By the arrangement represented above, two, three, or more School Desks are connected by a longitudinal beam or board, and firmly held together. The following advantages are claimed for this arrangement:

1. The series of Desks thus formed stand very firm on the floor, without being in any manner fastened to it.

2. They can be removed at pleasure by adults, in a few minutes, with little or no expense.

3. They present fewer obstacles to the use of the broom than any other Desk in use.

4. They furnish much less occasion for noise than any other School Desks, by presenting less surface for the feet to strike against. 5. They are superior, also, to other Desks, in regard to the convenience of getting in and out of them with ease.

6. In appearance they are neat, and, when properly made, even elegant.7. The central longitudinal beam separates the two scholars in each Desk, thus giving to the arrangement one of the principal advantages claimed for single Desks.

8. They are simple in construction, and easily made "AT HOME" by any good workman; put together with screws, can be taken apart and boxed.

9. They can be more easily adapted to peculiar tastes and circumstances, as regards hight of seat and writing-board, inclination of the seat back, etc., than any Desk that is supported by castings.

10. They are firmer and more durable than Desks that require to be fastened to the floor by nails or screws.

11. They are much cheaper than any other Desk—costing, ordinarily, not more than half as much.

That these statements are true, will, it is believed, be apparent to teachers and others who have had much experience in using and furnishing school-rooms; and, if they are true, it is equally plain that the advantages obtained by this arrangement are very great, and that it has good claims to the notice and favor of all who may desire to assist in improving the appearance of our school-rooms, and promoting the comfort of the pupils and teachers.

These desks are now in use in the following named Schools, and give perfect satisfaction: Grace Female Seminary, Miss Butler's Seminary, Mrs. Varney's School, St. Mary's College, Mission School, Protestant Orphan Asylum, Asylum for the Blind, San Francisco; Pacific Female College, Oakland; College at Vacaville. Also, in the following Public Schools: Oakland, Brooklyn, San Lorenzo, Pacheco, Napa, Sonoma, Sacramento, Washington, Nicolaus, Placerville (Private and Public Schools), Cold Springs, Mnd Springs, Sonora, San José, Santa Clara, San Mateo, Alviso, Monterey, Virginia City, and Mokelumne Hill.

The Desks, or the right to use the invention will be furnished on very favorable

Address terms.

TESTIMONIALS.

Department of Instruction, San Francisco, Cal., January 8th, 1863.

"Rankin's Improved School Desk" combines all the advantages of a neat, comfortable and cheap desk.

It is hardly inferior to the single desks with iron standards, and being much cheaper, it will commend itself to the consideration of all interested in school furniture.

> JOHN SWETT, State Superintendent of Public Schools. J. STRATTON, Principal of the Mason Street School.

ROOMS OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION, San Francisco, January 13th, 1863.

"Rankin's Improved School Desk" possesses many advantages not found in ordinary school furniture. It requires for its construction a comparatively small amount of labor and materials. A room furnished with these desks, can be very easily swept, and, should the room be required for any public occasion, they can be taken up and removed with unequaled rapidity.

For these and other reasons, I would recommend Rankin's desks for use in schools GEORGE TAIT, Superintendent of Common Schools.

San Francisco, January 13th, 1863. We, the undersigned, have carefully examined a new school desk, patented by James S. Rankin, Esq. We take pleasure in recommending it to township Trustees and all other who are furnishing school rooms, as being superior, all things considered, to anything we have seen. Its introduction into all schools in town and country, would, we are persuaded, tend greatly to general improvement, by promoting order and neatness among the scholars, and adding to their comfort.

HENRY DURANT,

Professor of Greek in the College of California, Oakland. A. HOLMES,

Principal of the State Normal School. ELLIS H. HOLMES, Principal of San Francisco, High School, Tcacher, San Francisco, Cal.

B. H. FREEMAN,

President of Mechanics' Institute, San Francisco.

J. C. PELTON, Principal of Rincon School. REV. E. THOMAS, Editor Christian Advocate.

From Andrew J. Moulder, Superintendent of Public Instruction.

San Francisco. January 7th, 1863. I have examined "Rankin's Improved School Desk," and cheerfully recommend it to Trustees and Teachers. It is convenient, well arranged, stands firmly, and dispenses with all unnecessary attachments. It is so simple that any carpenter can construct it, and is, by far, the cheapest desk that can be manufactured.

From E. B. Conklin, of Placerville, Cal.

I have been engaged for many years in teaching school; have used the single desks with iron stands. I am now using Rankin's Patent Desks, and find them superior to all others in point of economy, convenience, neatness and order. I take pleasure in recommending them to all who desire good school room furniture.

San Francisco, December 31st, 1862. Having examined Rankin's School Desk, I confidently recommend its use in view of economy and convenience. ALBERT WILLIAMS.

THE ORECONIAN,

A First-Class Political and Family Newspaper, PUBLISHED DAILY AND WEEKLY.

Prospectus for the Fifteenth Volume, commencing Nov. 19, 1864.

The character of the OREGONIAN, which has been regularly issued for fourteen years, (being the oldest newspaper in the State) has become so well established, and is so favorably known, that we hardly deem it necessary at the present time to announce that it will continue to be a FIRST-CLASS INDEPENDENT FAMILY AND POLITICAL NEWSPAPER. We shall spare no efforts towards further improvement and progress, and to make the OREGONIAN not only a complete compendium of current news and passing events, but also a pleasant fire-side companion and a faithful commercial guide. It will contain full reports of important Naval, Military and Political Movements, Stories, Sketches, Poetry, Editorials upon Current Topics, Correspondence from different sources; and Telegraphic Dispatches up to the time of going to press.

It is the only paper in Oregon that gives full and ungarbled Telegraphic Reports, and that receives these Reports, in full, expressly for its own columns.

The size of the Weekly is much enlarged with the commencement of the present volume, but the price remains still at the low sum of THREE DOLLARS per annum, hoping thereby to secure an increase of circulation as the reward of our enterprise.

Our columns will be devoted to the advocacy of Union principles, and we hope by a candid and courteous discussion of political principles to command readers of every political complexion and the respect of all our readers.

We shall especially endeavor to conserve the interest and merit the patronage of the large and important mining regions of Idaho, Washington and our own State, to publish all matters of interest relating thereto, and do full justice to their growth and importance, and shall endeavor to receive interesting and reliable correspondence from that section of country.

VARNEY'S PATENT AMALGAMATOR

Patented September, 16th, 1862. "July 12th, 1864.
Re-issued March 28th, 1865.

FOR DESCRIPTION, SEE OPPOSITE PAGE.

VARNEY'S PATENT

AMABGAMATORS

STAND UNRIVALED.

For rapidly pulverizing and amalgamating Ores, they have no equal. No effort has been, or will be spared, to have them constructed in the most perfect manner. Of the great number now in operation, not one has ever required repairs. The constant and increasing demand for them is sufficient evidence of their merits.

They are constructed so as to apply steam directly into the pulp, or with steam bottoms, as desired.

These are the only Pans that do not grind the Quicksilver. The Quicksilver lies around, but not under the Muller.

No time is lost in cleaning up, as everything is discharged from them by their own motion.

By turning a screw the Muller is raised and Grinding ceases, but amalgamation continues.

The Amalgamator operates as follows:

The Pan being filled, the motion of the Muller forces the pulp to the center, where it is drawn down through the aperture and between the grinding surfaces. Thence it is thrown to the periphery into the Quicksilver. The curved plates again draw it to the center, where it passes down, and to the circumference as before. Thus it is constantly passing in a regular flow between the grinding surfaces and into the Quicksilver, until the ore is reduced to an impalpable powder, and the metal amalgamated.

Setlers made on the same principle, excel all others. They bring the pulp so constantly and perfectly in contact with Quicksilver, that the particles are rapidly and completely absorbed.

Mill men are invited to examine these Pans and Setlers for themselves.

Pr Bourne, Physician to the "Pioneer Water Cure," having had an experience of more than TWENTY-TWO YEARS, can safely promise those who are ailing a better guar antee for successful treatment, than those whose chief boast is the fact that they attended lectures are read books a few months, and paid 100 dollars for a diploma--whose doings prove how much [little] they really know, and whose miserable failures must not be charged to D. Boarne, who, almost at the commencement of his practice, abandoned the horrible freezing and starvation "system" so prevalent in water cures even at this day. It would require a very "Distinguished Professor" to make Dr. Boarne believe that starving and freezing and throwing away flannels, could be beneficial to one whose vital for ces are impaired by disease. Not Dr. Bourne believes in genial warmth, and a PLENTY of the most healthy and nutritions food, even if it does cost more to feed than to starve a patient. Dr. Bourne has no symeathy, but only contempt, for such mean and stunid persons. no sympathy, but only contempt, for such mean and stupid persons.

OFFICE NEW ENGLAND FIRE INS. Co.,

OFFICE NEW ENGLAND FIRE INS. Co., SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 10, 1861.

Dr. Bourne, Dear Sir:—In conformity with your request, I will add my testimony to that of others, in favor of the Water Cure as practiced by yourself. I left San Francisco for the Atlantic States, during the winter of 1850, and immediately after my arrival in New York, was attacked by the Isthmus fever, from which I suffered excessively, and, after a protracted illness, was left in such a state of functional disturbance that inveterate constipation of the bowels was the sequence, from which I could obtain no relief, although the most skillful physician ebtain ne relief, although the most skillful physician were employed, and every possible remedy tested until during the past year (1863) I placed mysel under your charge, when, within the limit of fortnight, all my difficulties vanished, as it by magic. I am now a well man, and what is subsetter, during the short period under your care, LEARNED HOW TO KEEF WELL, for all which, accept my thanks, with permission to use this note in any mainer you may think most subservient to you interest.

Respectfully your friend,

WM. FAULKNER The Water Cure Journal

of October, 1849, (then edited by Dr. SHEW, the father of the Water Care in the United States), thus, notices Dr. BOURNE'S treatise upon Asiatic

Cholera, Diarrhoea and Dysentery---

"This is a pithy, concise, sententious Treatise, which should be in every family. A person can read the whole in an hour, and will know as much of the subject, and be as capable of putting its instructions into practice, at the end of that time, as if he had just finished any other book that would require a week's time. A hundred thousand copies should be disseminated at once, and those who are too poor to buy a book at twenty-five cents, should be supplied from the public funds. We regret that it was not issued a year ago; but the old adage says, Better late than never. It is a valuable little hook for all times? tle book for all times."

Retorting Amalgam.

Wonderful Cure! of an extraordinary Case of Mercurial Salivation!

HENRY ST. CLAIR, Printer, formerly of, and well known in San Francisco, arrived here from Mokelumne Hill during the latter part of December, 1855, in a most piteous condition from an extraordinary mercurial salivation, contracted while retorting a large quantity of amalgam in a defective re-tort. During the space of sixteen days, he had been unable to swallow even fluids, and several days were passed in imminent danger of suffication from were passed in imminent danger of suffocation from the swollen and discused condition of the throat. On his arrival in S.m Francisco, he had lost in weight about twenty-five pounds; he had been un-able to sleep during all the period of his suffering, a few minutes at a time only excepted; so that be-tween pain, loss of sleep, hunger, etc., he felt that death would be a welcome release. The physicians at "the Hill!" had given him up as incurable, and at "the Hill" had given him up as incurable, and erdered him to "go to the Bry" and there seek further aid, giving him, however, little or no encouragement to hope for success. It was Mr. St. Clair's good fortune to remember that he had heard of the Water Cure and Dr. BOURNE during his residence in this city, and on arriving, instantly placed himself in his hands, and the result was, that in four days he could hold a conversation, (on arriving, and previously, he had been forced to communicate by writing), and on the Eighth DAY was so perfectly restored as to return to the scene of his labors, able to resume his position on his arrival, although "the Hill" physicians told him that he "must not expect

Hill? physicians told from that he "must not expect to be able to do a day's work in a year, if ever."

For It seems almost unnecessary to say that such an extraordinary case was cured by extraordinary means, and that DR. BOURNE'S LONG EXPERIENCE AND SCIENTIFIC KNOWLEDGE enabled him to instantly adopt the effective course which produced the gratifying results above stated; and that in all cases of mercurial or other mineral noisthat in all cases of increurial or other mineral poisoning and disease generally, his across is equally PROMPT, DECIDED AND SUCCESSFUL. Many years after being cured, Mr. St. Clair stated that he had contin to improve until he enjoyed better health than at any previous time.

San Francisco, August, 1864.

FRIENDS OF WATER CURE!

"FACTS ARE STUBBORN THINGS."

During many years past, I have known my immore speed, releasant, safe, and by far the best employed in curing human ailments, and supernor in rapidity, certainty and comfort to that pursued by European and Eastern Water Cures; and although frequently told that such was the case, yet the parties were not possessed of sufficient acquaint-ance with the minutia of Eastern practice to warrant the use of their testimonials; but at length a gentleman of education, intelligence and habits of close and critical observation, has had the opportunity to form an opinion of my system and mole of treatment in contrast with the Eastern, in the two principal cures. This is a copy of his note:

To Dr. Bourne---Dear Sir:---Having spent now about two months in the "Pioneer Water Cure, allow me on leaving you to address a few lines of thanks to Mrs. Andrews and yourself, for your kindness, and of congratulation for the success which attends your efforts in the treatment of the sick.

I have been a resident for many months of two of the principal Water Cures in New York (Dr. Trall's, in the city, and Dr. Jackson's, in the western part of the State), and had large opportunities of observing their treatment and its success. I feel herward considerable treatment and its success. feel, however, convinced that your Care differs materially from theirs, not only in its mode and energy, but in the very speedy as well as certain cure, which is its effects. I have, happily, no sick friends, or I would urge a trial.

I am, dear sir, very truly yours, JOHN HODY JAMES.

Sin Francisco, Aug. 26th, 1861.

The persistent efforts to detract from Dr. Bourne's standing as a Water Care physician made Bourne's standing as a water Care physician made for some time past, from interested and unworthy motive has rendered it proper to publish the above estimate of his position. If deep and intelligent study, long experience (more than twenty-two years), close and critical observation, mature years and ardent devotion to one's profession, with a large and varied practice constitute any claim to the confidence of a community in the qualifications of an individual as a physiciau, then Dr. Bourne claims that of this community, as those attributes of a physician are his.

SAN FRANCISCO, SEPT. 6, 1861.

I have had opportunity, by experience in my own family, and from what I have seen and heard in the case of many others who have been under Dr. Bourne's care during several years past, to form an opinion of his skill as a Water Care physician, and take physician in recommendation. I take pleasure in recommending him to all who prefer that rational system of curing disease.

J. B. KNAPP, of Knapp, Burrell & Co.

San Francisco, Sept. 11, 1861. On the voyage from New York to Hong Kong, in the Winter of 1860-61, I was attacked with a fever, which left me, after treatment with process, with a severe diarrhea; this continued upon me during the three months I was in Hong Kong, and I was applied to leave there. obliged to leave there, fearing more sickness in the hot months, and I suffered the same as in Hong Kong during the passage of fifty-one days to San Francisco, where, after only a week's treatment at the Water Cure Establishment of Dr. Bourne, I was entirely relieved, and am to-day better in body than for some years

EDWARD T. PERKINS, of Salem, Mass.

[FROM THE WELL KNOWN CLOTHING FIRM OF J. M.

STROBRIDGE & Co.]
Sau Francisco, Sept. 20, 1861.
Dr. Bourne:—We take much pleasure in stating to you, that during many years we were close neighbors, and that we had the best possible opportunity for seeing and hearing of the results which followed your mode of treating disease, and were so woll please I, that we have been constantly in the habit of recommending those who were ailing, to avail themselves of your skill, and now, at your request, give this statement, with permission to make such use of it as you may deem useful to yourself and the public.

Portraits of a Patient. [No. 1.]

[No. 2.]

The subject of the foregoing portraits is an estimathe stollect of the foregoing portraits is an estimable gentleman of San Joaquin Co., Cal. They tell their own story. No. 1, represents him as he appeared after one week's treatment, when he already had gained six pounds in weight. No. 2, five weeks afterward, when he had gained eighteen pounds afterward, when he had gained eighteen pounds six weeks, at which time he returned home, to astonish his friends with the result of Dr. Bourne's skill. In addition to the enjoyment of uninterrupted health, within one year from the time he placed himself in Dr. Bourne's care, h gained some forty pounds. His ailment was very complicated,—being dyspepsia, neuralgia, "general debility," which, while it is a most vague and indefinable term, is generally understood to signify any amount of "goneness," you please. In addition, on arrival he was laboring under a very serious attack of congestion of the lungs. Many years have elapsed since this cure, and the patient continues a living witness to the facts so briefly stated.

STEAM OR VAPOR BATHS, AND ELECTRICITY.

[From the Daily Alta California, July 13, 1859.]

In an "Editorial" descriptive of the Electro-Chemical Bath, occurs the following passage: "The rapidity with which the discovery has been adopted, is one of the most surprising facts in its relation. Our readers are aware that Electricity has been for some years employed in curing diseases, in this city, by Dr. Bourne. That gentleman has found by experience, that the most efficacious mode of applying it, is to a patient undergoing the depurating influence of a vapor bath; which we may remark, is in the Doctor's bands, by no means the Dangerous agent which it ercomes when employed by the unskillful and careless practitioner." This fact should never be lost sight of by the public, for, when ignorant and emprincipled people, merely for gain, undertake the important charge of administering Vapor Baths, they cannot well avoid doing mischief. Only persons of large experience can safely be trusted.

The Hot Air Bath!

This is the last "agony" of the Quidnuncs, and will be administered to all who desire, SECUNDEM ARTEM. The Russian Bath, improved by Dr. Bourne, being an admirable "adaptation of means to ends," is recommended to all who have ever used that style of bath, as worthy a trial at least, on account of its great superiority.
